COLLECTION: “LA FEMMALE”

In ‘La Femmale,’ we embark on a profound journey towards polarity and more equitable systems, guided by the divine energies of both the feminine and the masculine.

The evolution of feminine strength is a testament to resilience and adaptability, represented in the achromatic universe. In this artistic narrative, we witness the marvellous growth and development of the feminine energy, as well as the healing of the masculine force, a delightful process of acceptance and empowerment of both aspects.

The interplay of these energies creates a harmonious equilibrium, indicative of a glorious balance that resonates with the fluidity and dynamism of the universe.

COLLECTION: “LA FEMMALE”

“The figure of women is central in Emelly’s artistic research: the woman seen as an inexhaustible source of strength, energy, purity, but also all the contradictions, injustices and fears that she is forced to face. Emelly is never afraid to express what she thinks and feels in her deepest self through her works, addressing even very intimate issues of the female sphere, real taboos, such as menstruation or the female reproductive system.

This is to ensure that anyone, whether man or woman, can really stop and reflect. The color, with its shades and intensity, the lines, the shapes are her impactful communication tools, which dance and sing on her canvases. Color is precisely one of the greatest expressive forces in Emelly’s works”.
